Hiltons Fete Golden Wedding

Patriarch Eugene and Sister Ruth Hilton at Golden Wedding family reunion.

Children and grandchildren of Patriarch Eugene and Sister Ruth Hilton attended a celebration of their Golden Wedding Jrly 1. All the children spoke at the public program in the Oakland 3d Ward Chapel attended by not only all the children and their spouses, 38 of the 48 living grandchildren and their spouses, but various other family members and by some 500 friends.

One of the highlights of the pro gram was the presentation of a bound book of letters and greetings from all over te world, wishing them well and recalling happy moments in the past, including a message from President McKay. After the program the Hiltons greeted their friends at a reception in the recreation hall of the ward.

Saturday morning the Hiltons and their children with their spouses attended a session at the Temple as a family group and on Sunday all went to Fast and Testimony meeting at Oakland 3d Ward, again as a family group.

Success comes in various ways, and the Hiltons have enjoyed many of them. They have seven sons and a daughter, each of whom have served missions, graduated from college, married in a Temple and are still active in chur,h work. They have 48 living grandchildren, some happily married, several called on missions, many in college, hosts of them teen-agers, and a bevy of babies. They have the love and esteem of those whose lives they have enriched from the British Isles to New Pealand. They have fulfilled three missions; the first in the Eastern States where they met, the second in Britain, and the third a teaching assignment at the Church College of Hawaii and the Church College of New Zealand, at each of which they spent a year. While they have always been active in Church work. they have also been alert to opportunities for good in communities where they have lived and have hosts of friends outside the Church. Their way has not always been easy—but it must be a source of great satisfaction to them to know how many are better people for having known them.

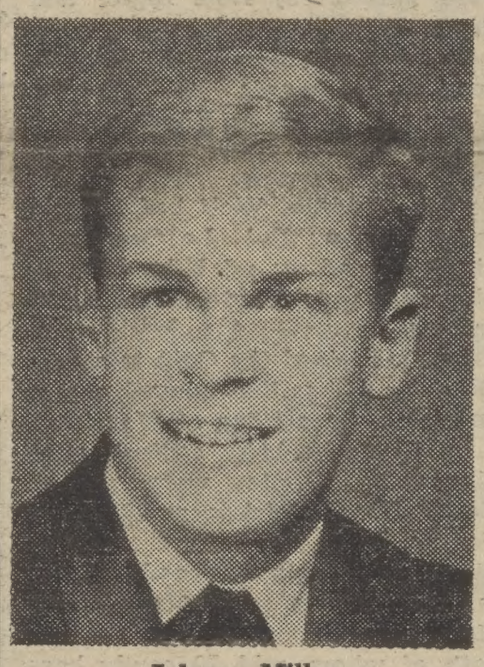
LDS Golfers Win Open Tourney

Billy Casper, top pro in the United States Open in San Francisco, two weeks later won the Western Open Golf touramet at Chicago.

Aother member of the Church John Miller, 19-year old Brigham Young University student won the amateur title in the U.S Open at San Francisco by three strokes.



Johnny Miller

In winning the National open at San Francisco, Billy Casper had to come from behind in a head-on clash with Arnold Palmer to win the playoff after they tied in their series

Two other LDS men were "written up" during the tournament; Arnold Palmer's caddy, Mike Reaser of the BYU team; and John Geertsen, professional at the San Francisco Country club.

Favorable comment about the Church appeared area newspapers because of Casper's win.

When asked about his religious views in front of 125 men from the newspapers, he said that golf, even with the Open title just tucked under his arm, was not the most important thing in his life. He said that he had joined the Mormon Church and suddenly he had found tings that meant more to him.

While here for the Open, he spoke at a Church Fireside in a Petaluma Ward and attended Priesthood meeting at the Green Brae Ward in Marin county. He told newsmen that he prays regularly.

A full-page feature on Casper and Miller appears in the June 25 issue of the Church News.

Special music for the recent Hayward Stake conference was presented by a youth chorus of voices selected from throughout the stake and trained by Dennis Wilson. Jane Sylvester was accompaniest.

June Brides, Grads That's About All— Some Exceptions

By Mary Westover

June was taken up with graduations, weddings and welcoming students away all winter. Dave Hoopes, son of Bishop Ren, was married to Dianne Tuttle in the Salt Lake Temple by her father, A. Theodore Tuttle of the First Council of Seventy. All the Tuttles came to Oakland for an open house at the bishop's home While here Elder Tuttle officiated at the quarterly conference of Hayward Stake and spoke at Oakland Ward Sacrament meeting. The young folks have gone back to Provo for the summer where Dave takes his master's degree in business administration. and will return to the Bay Area to make their home while he takes a law course at the University of California and Dianne finishes her college work there.

Many attended the reception for former Lois Cagle of Fresno. Wes Wes Matheson and his bride. the and Lois were married in the Oakland Temple.

Then there are the college graduates, the high school graduates, the Seminary graduates and those from junior high school and Primary. This certainly should be an edccated ward! Which is typically Mormon, after all!

Our students are back from the "Y" and other schools. Some of them gave talks in a recent Sacrament meeting.

George and Yvosne Hiltos and their family are leaving early in July for Miami. Florida where George. who finished his residency in ophthalmology recently, will have a combination teaching- research assignment in the medical school there.

Among those who have received Scout honors. Doug Higham and Alas Simons have received the Order of the Arrow. and Scoutmaster Rudy Coffing got his also.

One of the nicest evenings we have had for a long time was the pot-luck ward dinner June 5. When every woman in the ward brings her favorite casserole. or salad. or dessert — the only way to describe the dinner is FULL. There was a Gay Nineties theme. and it was hard to recognize even the bisonic. Te MIA groups put on a play. directed by Eddie Clapperton wit the help of Tom Johnston, which was not only enoivable but almost professional Even the non-parents were proud of them, and glad that OUR Church sponsors this type of activity.

Our elders' quoum htill has a number of 50-star flags they are selling to raise money for the missionary fund. These are 3' by 5, and have either stitched-on or printed stars. Paul Whitesides, 532-6097 has details.

Those who remember Joan Porter's grandmother Elsie Morris were sorry to hear of her recent passing and also that of Wally Mirgan's mother, who lived in Utah.

Our Temple workeds are having a vacation from July 2 to August 9. the period Oakland Temple will be closed.

Jim and Veda Linford are sponsoring and accompanying a week-long tour fo r39 foreign students through California. This is under the sponsorship of the Rotary Club of Oakland and the International House and is a yearly affair. They go by bus down the ost to Pasadena an dback to Yosemite, stoppingat all the historic and interesting spots en route.

MADEIRA by Thomasville®

Ever dream of lazing in the warm Mediterranean sun? We can't provide the suntan, but Thomasville's new Madeira creates the mood. Richly textured pecan veneers and solids hit a new high in sophistication with their handsome grayed-down Almond finish. There's a bold Spanish feeling in geometric door panels and dimensional drawer fronts that look hand carved. The cane panel bed hints at romantic French. Dressers and chests sit on low tapered feet, appear to "float", seem less space-consuming in compact rooms. Marvelous finishing touches: massive pulls in antiqued brass. All from a correlated collection of wood and upholstered furniture for living room, dining room and bedroom.
